DANIELSON

Uniforms for Home Guards Arrive — Promotions in Thirteenth Company — Preparing for Improvements at Dayville Station—Town Should Get Off Easy in First Draft—Girls at Camp Norman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Wood visited in Fall River Tuesday. John C. Spooner of Worcester visited friends in Danielson Tuesday.

A meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held with Mrs. F. H. Greener Tuesday evening.

To Enlarge Stockhouse. A further addition is to be made to the big stockhouse at industrial place.

Annual Outing. Scores of employees of the Goodyear Cotton company will go to Rocky Point Saturday, August 4, for their second annual outing at the shore.

John C. Peterson of New Britain was a visitor with friends in Danielson Tuesday.

An increase of the number of children of school age within the town of Killingly will be shown by the next census, chiefly due to the arrival of new families, members of which have found employment in the big textile plants.

Hundreds of home gardens in this vicinity are doing splendidly. The extent of the planting done in the spring was indeed remarkable, a fact that is now often commented upon by automobile parties that tour the country.

Home Guard Drill. A weekly drill of Danielson's Home Guard company was held at the state armory Tuesday evening. The members of the company have received their uniforms and the guns are expected in the near future.

Girls in Camp. Misses Yvonne Vachon, Beatrice Vachon, Ruth Arnold, Ada Dawson and Olive Kent are spending the summer at Camp Norman, Alexander's lake. Mrs. John Dawson is acting as chaperone.

Miss Rachel Burns is spending this week at the camp.

The young women have entertained friends at a supper at the camp recently.

C. A. C. Promotions. Advancement in rank for members of the Thirteenth company, Coast Artillery corps, were announced as follows by Captain T. E. Whitte, commanding officer: Corporal Leon N. Blanchette to be sergeant; Corporal George D. Stone to be sergeant; Corporal Joseph Burton to be sergeant; Private Harold F. Glendinning to be corporal; Private Henry Roberge to be corporal; Private Peter Kagan to be corporal; Private Robert Dragon to be corporal; Private Arthur DeForest to be corporal.

Railroad Improvements at Dayville. Blue prints show the importance of the changes to be made in the railroad yards at Dayville, where a rearrangement of sidings has been planned and arrangements made for the construction of a new freight house. The great part of the extension work will be done on land purchased by the company and located south of the village and on the westerly side of the tracks.

MANY HAVE ENLISTED. Consequently Town Should Get Off Easy on the First Draft.

While the local exemption board is without information on the point, the press dispatches from Washington indicate that enlistments recently made in the regular army or national guard will be deducted from any quota that a district is designated to fill under the draft system.

If this be true, this town should get off easy on the first draft, for many have been furnished for the branches of the service mentioned. Enlistments have been very heavy, too, in Putnam, but the remainder of the towns in the district — Thompson, Woodstock, Eastford and Ashford have not made much of a showing in furnishing volunteers.

In view of this fact, the question arises, do these last mentioned towns get the benefit of the enlistments furnished in Killingly and Putnam, or will Woodstock, Thompson, Eastford and Ashford be required to furnish most of the men called under the draft?

The question is an interesting one if considered on the basis of an equal distribution of the do-you-fit plan. The plain fact is that the great per-

Peter Holder, Unregistered Alien, Sent to Jail—Town's Jury List—Colored Men to Play Local Team—Death of Dr. Harvey H. Converse of Eastford—Free Canning Privileges at High School.

Leland Bradley, who has enlisted in the medical department of the regular army, is at Fort Slocum, N. Y.

J. A. Gagne has returned from a motor trip to Boston, where he went for the opening of the Elks' convention.

Members of the Bible school of the Congregational church will go to Geneva's grove, Thursday for the annual outing. The party will make the trip in automobiles.

Delay in Receiving Numbers. Capt. Joseph Ryan said Tuesday afternoon that the numbers for motor vehicles engaged in public service have not arrived, but will be received here within a few days.

More than a dozen men who will be employed in the local freight station as truckers arrived here on the express from Boston Tuesday afternoon.

At Georgia Camp. Leon A. Talbot, who has enlisted in the United States infantry, is now at a training camp in Georgia.

UNREGISTERED ALIEN. Peter Holder Given 30 Days in Jail.

Peter Holder, charged with assault, was before Judge Fuller in the city court Tuesday morning and was given 30 days in jail. It was ascertained that he is an unregistered alien of the age limit included in the draft.

Mark F. Klebart, who has enlisted in the medical department, United States army, is at Fort Hamilton, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Chautauqua ticket committee members report that they are having good success with their efforts so far this week.

Putnam's Jury List. The following is the list of jurors drawn for the town of Putnam for the period of one year from Sept. 1 next: Arthur Tourtelotte, Isaac C. Keach, Freeman A. Libby, Daniel G. Arnold, Walter S. Carpenter, Alex. Houghton, Leon T. Wilson, J. Richard Carpenter, Charles Clemons, William S. Bates, Hector Duvert, Orio C. Gosworthy, F. M. Cole, Charles A. Wilcox, William D. Chapwell, Alfred Bonnell, Eugene Brousseau, J. B. Daigle, Ernest L. Davis, Charles E. Dean, J. A. Gagne, Frank X. Lucier, Eugene Minault, George Potvin, Timothee Tetraud, Godfard Rivard, Don Jolly, Armand Lisotte, Olin D. Barrows, George W. Baker, Clinton S. Andem.

Percentage of Windham county volunteers are coming from the industrial centers, not from the outlying sections of the county. And reference to the registration cards demonstrates very clearly that many young men in towns that are considered chiefly as agricultural are not engaged in farming.

It is not to be expected that Eastford and Ashford will furnish many men, for there are not many in these towns to be furnished, but results are looked for from Thompson and Woodstock.

Roughly, Killingly has furnished between 50 and 100 men for the regular army, national guard and navy. Putnam has furnished about 70 men for different branches of the service. Not a dozen men have been obtained in the other four towns of the district.

Pointers for Those Liable. For the benefit of young men liable for the draft, it is incumbent upon each one to learn what his draft number is and the number of the draft exemption district in which lives.

Due notice is to be given to those who are drawn to appear for examination.

Whether married or unmarried, draft is not an unfit man, and will be drawn must present himself before the exemption board at the time and place specified.

At least one hearing, probably more, will be held in Danielson, for the town of Killingly. Other meetings of the exemption board will be held at William place in the district. No exemption or discharge will be granted any man drawn unless such is applied for.

Claims for exemption must be filed within seven days after a man is called, and this filing of a claim is entirely up to him.

Even occupational callings do not automatically exempt a man from applying from exemption. Any man drawn, whatever his status or state of health, must apply for exemption if he expects to be exempted, and then each case is to be passed upon according to the rules laid down.

Liberty Bond Buttons in Demand. There is a call for Liberty bond buttons in Putnam, but no supply with which to meet the demand. Those who have purchased bonds are really anxious to get a button to show that they have come forward to back the government in this time of war.

It was said Tuesday afternoon by one in a position to know that those who have purchased the bonds on a time payment agreement are keeping up the payments.

Colored Giants to Play Putnam. The New Haven Colored Giants, champion colored team of New England, are booked to appear here next Sunday afternoon against the Putnam team.

Last year this New Haven team made the remarkable record of winning 43 out of 44 games played, and this year they have started out for another record, appearing to have dropped but one game out of 18 played.

Manager Thomas McDermott of the Putnam team said Tuesday afternoon that he will strengthen the Putnam team for this game, putting several new faces into the local lineup. A league pitcher will do the twirling for Putnam.

VOLUNTEERS HAPPY. Write Home in Praise of Service—Splendid Care of Government.

Messages that are filtering back from the Putnam boys who have gone into the regular army all agree on one point—that Uncle Sam's service is great. Every Sammy in the bunch seems to be highly pleased over getting into the army and all write home of the good care that is being taken of them by the government.

During the present week some of the Putnam boys are being sent forward from Fort Slocum, N. Y., the recruit depot, to points in Georgia and the west, where they will receive their training before going to France. Some of the Putnam boys who have gone into the field artillery may be sent to Nebraska for their training period.

OBITUARY. Dr. Harvey H. Converse. Dr. Harvey H. Converse, 71, died Monday at his home in Eastford, following an attack of heart disease. He has not been in good health for a long period, but his death came suddenly, he passing away after an illness of less than an hour.

FREE CANNING PRIVILEGES. Domestic Science Department of High School at Disposal of Women—Jams and Jellies Needed for France.

All day today and tomorrow afternoon the domestic science department of the high school at Eastford is open to those who are interested in availing themselves of its use to do canning. This is in the line with establishing the center previously mentioned. An invitation has been extended to all interested women to attend and to bring the products which they wish to can.

Relative to jams and jellies wanted for the soldiers in France, the following was given out Tuesday:

A request has been received from Mrs. Rose Dwyer on the export of jam, jellies and nerve sugar, for jellies and jam for use in France. Miss Dwyer has been asked by the federal government to undertake the preparation of jam to work among the soldiers and civilians who are suffering from nerve and other ailments. These cases are important food items for the soldiers and that without sufficient sugar there can be little hope of recovery.

She writes that the most important food items for the soldiers are jam and jellies. These include many pitiful cases among the children of the ravaged regions of France. Miss Dwyer can secure the exportation of jam, jellies and nerve sugar, for jellies and jam to France, and she asks that each woman, in putting up these preserves, set aside a jar for these pitiful cases of nerve exhaustion and nerve shock. Women having jam or jelly to donate can either take or send it to the headquarters in Hartford.

Of this it is convenient that they communicate with the chairman of their county or the president of the nearest equal suffrage league and some of the women of the district. Jam and jellies will be devised and carried through by the central war work committee.

At the high school, in the domestic science room, there is on exhibition at present quantities of beans, peas, fruits and many other products that have been canned or otherwise preserved by the young people who have been taking a course there this season.

YANTIC. Local Made Blankets and Overcoatings for Government Come Up to Standard—Truck Overtures—Home Gardens at Fitchville.

Mr. Oppenheim of Philadelphia, government inspector for the United States, has been in town recently inspecting the cloth made by the Admore Woolen company for the government. Blankets and overcoatings have both passed his rigid inspection.

John S. Sullivan of Boston had a large automobile truck delivered to him which he is using to haul milk to Willimantic for the Providence Dairy company.

Big Truck Overtures. A serious accident was averted in the village Monday afternoon by the presence of mind of Lawrence Dixon of Fitchville, driver of Palmer's Buick truck, when the steering gear pin dropped out and the steering gear was made useless. The car crashed into the stone wall opposite the mill and toppled over on its side, throwing Mr.

Dixon to the ground. He managed to get off the car before he was thrown. Mr. Dixon received a scalp wound and was well shaken up, but supervised the removal of the truck when help arrived.

Home Gardens at Fitchville. A trip through the country in the early evening, especially through mill villages where there are progressive people at the head of the manufacturing establishments, show that there are no slackers when it comes to attending to the community gardens such as have been given to the employees of Palmer Bros. in Fitchville, north of the village. A lot containing several acres was prepared for the people and sections divided off and the result of the work after mill hours is such that most of the families will not have to depend on outsiders for their winter store of vegetables.

James H. Shea with a pair of horses attached to the big truck all but had a runaway when leaving the house, the neck yoke broke and the pole stuck into the ground.

The building damaged is owned by Mrs. Bridget Kelley of Greenville. She and Mr. Bakanowsky are insured with different companies. The losses, which were considerable, and not been adjusted Tuesday evening.

Fire Marshal G. H. Prior, who was at the fire believes the blaze started from a smoldering cigarette butt left when the place closed at 10 o'clock.

There is a big lumber and coal yard nearby, so that the prompt work in subduing the blaze prevented heavier losses.

A Word of Precaution.

JUST wherein lies the reason for the use of vegetable preparations for infants and children?

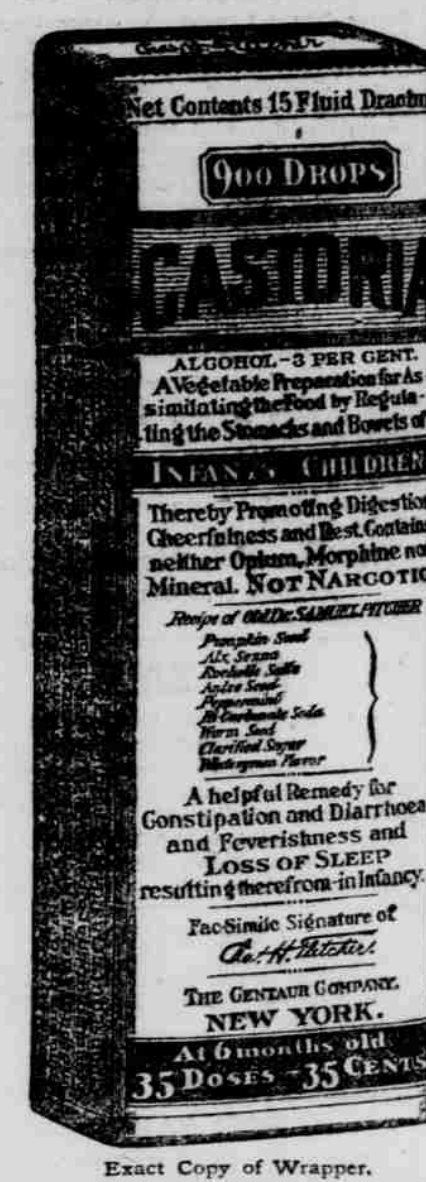

Why are any but vegetable preparations unsafe for infants and children?

Why are Syrups, Cordials and Drops condemned by all Physicians and most laymen?

Why has the Government placed a ban on all preparations containing, among other poisonous drugs, Opium in its variously prepared forms and pleasing tastes, and under its innumerable names?

These are questions that every Mother will do well to inquire about.

Any Physician will recommend the keeping of Fletcher's Castoria in the house for the common ailments of infants and children.

Canadian Army Headquarters in France, July 10.—Operations against Lens on this front, especially around Avion and Lievin, are still, for the most part, a artillery affair. Infantry patrols penetrate the area of ruined houses immediately ahead and occasionally blow up a house in which Germans are believed to be sheltering, but the greater part of the task at the present falls to the guns.
